ANNOUNCEMENTS

DAVIS THEATRE

Four Shows Today—Mae Murray in The Show Girl; Louise Glaum in A Strange Transgressor—Two Big Features Coming Monday, Douglas Fairbanks in His Latest Comedy, Down to Earth.

Crowded houses were in evidence at every performance at the Davis yesterday and the photograph bill more than came up to expectation. Mae Murray, the famous Paramount star, and Louise Glaum, the Triangle Peacock woman, were both seen in wonderful productions and it is hard to determine which was the better as both pictures appealed to all who saw them. Mae Murray appears in the Flow Girl, a Lasky production, which carries the spectator through many climes and is interesting from beginning to end.

The Triangle feature which Miss Glaum appears in is called A Strange Transgressor. For the first time in her career Miss Glaum appears with the famous Triangle Kiddies in this production. To complete the show there is a funny Triangle comedy called His Thankless Job.

Next week Douglas Fairbanks appears in Down to Earth, his newest Aircraft offering. On the same bill with Fairbanks is Bessie Love, the dainty Triangle star, in The Sawdust Ring, a five-part delightful story of circus life. Also His Sudden Rival, a comedy comedy, this is made for laughing purposes only.

MAJESTIC ROOF GARDEN

Valeska Suratt in The Slave Feature for Tonight at the Majestic Roof Garden—Coming Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Brothers, Wonderful Athletes.

The feature play for tonight at the Majestic Roof Garden will be Valeska Suratt in The Slave, a soul-stirring story of today in six parts.
The plot of The Slave unfolds itself in novel form. Caroline (Valeska Suratt) is a forlorn in a Fifth Ave. fashionable home. Her mind struggles for existence in the midst of the luxury in which she lives. Old moneybags, a frequent visitor to the theatre, proposes to Caroline. She hesitates, but her mother, also a victim of the struggle to live, tells her resolutely that all marriage is honorable. Miss Suratt is known as the Empress of Fashion. As the actress of a thousand costumes, she is unchallenged. In The Slave she wears some of the most startling gowns ever shown on stage or screen. The latest Mutual Weekend and a very funny comedy complete the programme.

As an extra added attraction for next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the Charming Brothers, two Greenville boys, who do an athletic specialty that is second to none, will appear once nightly at 8.30.

BREED THEATRE

Mary Anderson and Antonio Moreno in The Magnificent Meddler. Feature for Today—H. B. Warner Will be Seen Monday and Tuesday in The Danger Trail.

The bill at the Breed theatre for today consists of Mary Anderson and Antonio Moreno in The Magnificent Meddler, a story of a bawdy young reporter who tried to mould the des-tines of a frontier town—and succeeded; the latest news in the Heart-Pathe Weekly and a very funny comedy featuring the famous comedian, Huchie Mack.

On Monday and Tuesday the Breed will present H. B. Warner and an exceptional supporting cast in The Danger Trail, a pictureization of James Oliver Curwood's stirring drama of enduring love and bitter hate amid the deep snows. The sixth chapter of The Fatal King will also be shown and the Heart Pathe Weekly will complete the bill for Monday and Tuesday.

What Every German Knows.
For any army of one million men, which is the avowed purpose of the government to put in France before next summer 16,000 field guns are required. To date the contracts for the organs have not yet been let. That is not the fault of Congress. It is the fault of somebody in the War Department. Who that somebody is we hope Congress will soon deem it a patriotic duty to find out.

The country is just beginning to ascertain the colossal cost of M. De-man's mad administration of the shipping board. In Boston alone three months were lost in commencing the repair work necessary to restore the liners to a seaworthy condition today man. Is the shipping scandal to be repeated in War Department in the case of field guns.

Until Congress turns on the light the country will be kept in the dark. But the Germans are well aware that all of our field guns are still on paper. Our own people are deceived.—Boston Transcript.

ISN'T THIS THE SMARTEST

TURBAN YOU'VE SEEN?

SURE OF IT.

A black head straw turban, boat shaped, has its top entirely covered with wire colored asters, apparently held up by a pink bow and band of black velvet ribbon set high.

Bulletin's Pattern Service
Illustration of a woman in a dress, part of an advertisement for Bulletin's Pattern Service.

With Sleeve in Either of Two Styles.
Linen, pique, challie, serge, repp, poplin and silk are nice for this style.
Gingham, lawn and percale, too, are desirable. The latest in sleeve styles points and widened by shaped "godet" kores. These should be of contrasting material. The sleeve is finished in the same way, in short length. In wrist length it has a button cuff.

The pattern is cut in four sizes: 4, 6, 8 and 10 years. It requires 3-4 yards of 36-inch material, an 8-9 yard size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

Order through The Bulletin Company, Pattern Dept., Norwich, Conn.

A Burbank Wheat.
If Luther Burbank is not mistaken in the promise of a "superwheat" which he has created by plant breeding, he has got something that will revolutionize grain production in the United States by producing from 50 to 70 bushels of wheat an acre where ordinary wheat now yields 15 or 20 bushels.
The world is going to need that kind of help and a newspaper writer who has talked to Mr. Burbank at Santa Rosa, Cal., found him confident of making this forecast good in this important matter—Springfield Republican.
